

American College of Forensic Psychology
37th Annual Forensic Psychology Symposium
ACFP 2022 Student Poster Sessions

POSTER SESSION 1: THURSDAY, APRIL 28, 5:15-6:15 PM PDT

Legal and Ethical Issues

1. Echols, M.: Decriminalizing animal hoarding
2. Leavitt, S. J.: Tarasoff's duty to warn and protect with interstate therapy
3. Hawking, K.: Opioid addiction & the U.S. legal system

Mass Shootings

4. Ballin, A. G.: Words mean things: The harm in varying definitions of mass shootings
5. Dismang, J. N.: Access to specialized threat assessment teams to prevent mass shootings

Police Psychology

6. Cox, M. L.: Critical incident stress debriefs and their effectiveness for first responders
7. Kernerman, Y.: Similarity judgments as an alternative to traditional lineups for eyewitness testimony
8. Kirk, C. C.: False confessions and intellectual disabilities: The need for a mental health professional in interrogations
9. LeCote, M. S.: Implicit bias in policing: Detection and prediction in officer selection
10. Law, M. A.: Criminalizing coercive control: Overcoming the issue of police use of discretion
11. Micka, M.: Improving police performance measures to strengthen police community relationships
12. Mo, Y. K.: Examining effective police questioning techniques for child witnesses
13. Nagy, E.: The importance of co-response mental health teams to improve interactions between police and persons with mental illness
14. Wemette, C. C.: Using police performance evaluations to screen for moral injury as a precursor for PTSD

Recidivism

15. Begun, N.: Hidden considerations in female recidivism
16. Jenkins, A. S.: Dance movement therapy used in prison systems could reduce recidivism of violent crimes
17. Moj dara, P.: A need to revisit interventions for reducing recidivism in juvenile offenders
18. Thomason, C. A., Duong, J.: Multisystemic therapy for reducing recidivism rates in juvenile sexual offenders

POSTER SESSION 2: FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 4:15-5:15 PM PDT

Cultural Factors in Forensic Psychology

1. Abbie-Hall, A., Tolan, L.: Historical and current impacts on missing and murdered indigenous women
2. Dorsey, A. K.: Cultural considerations in individuals with traumatic brain injury and criminality
3. Duong, J., Thomason, C. A.: The implications of hate crimes toward Asians motivated by the COVID-19 pandemic
4. Jassim, Z.: Identifying ways to mitigate cultural bias in forensic and neuropsychological testing
5. Jenkins, A. S.: Cultural factors and technology should be standard elements in psychological autopsy methodology
6. Tseng, G.: Underreported abuse of older LGBT adults in care homes
7. Turner, S.: Linguistic bias: The impact of African American vernacular English in the courtroom
8. Wemette, C. C.: Policy recommendations for cultural humility practices in police witness interviews

Child and Family Law

9. Echols, M.: The Cinderella Effect: Non-genetic romantic partners as a risk factor for child abuse

10. Hafez, M., Cameron, E. C.: Maternal cannabis use
11. Harrison, J.: Forensic implications of battered woman syndrome as a self-defense
12. Sunder, P.: Screening for ADHD before questioning juvenile suspects leads to better legal outcomes

Criminal Attitudes and Behaviors

13. Altomaro, C.: Exposure to early adversity increases the risk for criminal justice involvement later in life
14. Banks, A. L., Moore, L. R.: Close attachment and adverse childhood experiences predict adult criminal attitudes
15. Berumen, M.: Criminal profiling: Harmful or helpful?
16. Kromer, L. R.: Makings of a serial killer: Abuse, poverty, and low education
17. Nelson, M. K.: Murder accountability project: Examining associations between murder weapons, months, & states
18. Woods, M. L., Olson, S. A.: Criminal attitudes and associates predict psychopathic personality

POSTER SESSION 3: SATURDAY, APRIL 30, 4:15-5:15 PM PDT

Correctional Psychology

1. Berger, J.: Traumatic brain injuries and incarceration
2. Lugo, C.: The psychological effects of prolonged solitary confinement
3. Marshall, L., Kletzka, N: Dialectical behavior therapy effectiveness on behavioral outcomes in a forensic psychiatric hospital
4. Meister, T.: Is justice blind to the cycle of mass incarceration?
5. Patel, M., Loehr, G. T., Pringer, S. M., Petersen, N., Raines, S. G., Cherry, J. A., Lightsey, O. R.: Yoga: A low-cost intervention for justice-involved individuals mental and physical wellbeing
6. Pavlus, J.: Mindfulness training for incarcerated juvenile offenders

Forensic Neuropsychology

7. Covert, F.: Psychological evaluations in immigration cases of asylum seekers
8. Dorsey, A. K.: Performing psychological autopsies in LGBTQ+ populations
9. Hillman Suchy, S.: Risks of firearm ownership in older adults with dementia-related cognitive impairments
10. Woods, M. L., Olson, S. A.: Relationship between reactive physical aggression and criminal attitudes and associates

Sexual Violence and Abuse

11. Connors-Beron, K.: Sexual victimization may impact juror decision making
12. Sharma, S.: Somatic experiencing may mitigate retraumatization for sexual harassment victims with PTSD during litigation
13. Rossi Green, J.: Markers of sexual violence in the military and institutional failure to punish